

Invite Your Customers for Free to Coverings 2026 with Nvytes

As a benefit of reserving a booth, exhibitors can provide their customers and contacts with promo codes that will give them FREE registration to Coverings. Exhibitors have access to a robust exhibitor invitation system through Nvytes featuring customizable co-branded landing page, email invitations, web banners and more where you can easily invite your customers to visit your booth at Coverings at no cost.

CUSTOMER INVITATION PROGRAM

Send Customized Emails, Banners, and More at No Cost

Send a custom email with your logo, booth number, company description. Download your customized HTML email template that you can send on your own or upload a list and let Nvytes do the work.

Want to market your booth on your website, in your newsletter or your email signature? We've created digital banners customized with your booth number, ready for download!

Prefer to keep things simple and invite your prospects and customers via a personalized PDF invitation? Download your custom PDF invitation and you can share however you would like.

A co-branded landing page has been created to market your booth and invite guests to register. Share the link to your landing page and your customers can take advantage of our easy-to-use registration system.

Invite your social networks to the expo with one-click social media posts. Your post will include a show branded image, your company name and booth number, as well as a link for your network to register with the special offer.

Accessing Your Custom Nvytes Dashboard

Coverings exhibitors can access their Nvytes dashboard through the Coverings Exhibitor Hub under the section titled "Access Your Invitation Portal" or keep an eye out for Exhibitors Newsletters and email directly from nvytes for links right to your custom dashboard.
